Go Beyond Reality at the Library

Rapid City, S.D. – Watch out for ghosts, goblins, vampires and the occasional superhero at the downtown Rapid City Public Library on Friday, Oct. 23. Teens in grades 6 through 12 are invited to dress as their favorite book or movie characters and come to the library for a Beyond Reality Costume Party from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

The costume party, being held to celebrate Teen Read Week, will feature food, fun, gaming and prizes for the top three costumes. The top prize is an MP3 player, followed by a $50 Borders gift card and $25 Borders gift card.

“We have lots of food and fun planned for the party,” said Susan Braunstein, programming librarian. “There will be a guitar hero tournament, a scavenger hunt with prizes, a food challenge and much more. Plus we will have pizza, pop and tons of candy.”

The Rapid City Public Library has served the Rapid City area since 1879, and now has two locations, the downtown library at 610 Quincy Street and the north library within General Beadle Elementary School at 10 Van Buren St. Both offer print and electronic resources for adults, young adults and children as well as computers and Internet access and a variety of programs and events. In March 2008, USA Today named the Rapid City Public Library's downtown library as one of the nation's 10 greatest places to "Find a Nook and Read a Book."
