Lunch and Learn About South Dakota's Grasslands

Rapid City, S.D. – South Dakota grasslands is the theme of the October Lunch and Learn program offered by the Rapid City Public Library. Chuck Mickel from the South Dakota Wild Grassland Coalition will discuss the latest local and national issues involving South Dakota's grasslands. This program takes place on Wednesday, October 21 from noon to 1 p.m. at the downtown library located at 610 Quincy Street.

Lunch is provided compliments of the Friends of the Library organization. Anyone who would like a lunch should RSVP to the library by noon on Monday, October 19 by calling 394-4171.

The Rapid City Public Library has served the Rapid City area since 1879, and now has two locations, the downtown library at 610 Quincy Street and the north library within General Beadle Elementary School at 10 Van Buren St. Both offer print and electronic resources for adults, young adults and children as well as computers and Internet access and a variety of programs and events. In March 2008, USA Today named the Rapid City Public Library's downtown library as one of the nation's 10 greatest places to "Find a Nook and Read a Book."
