Fresh Greens and Home Baked Bread take Center Stage at Lunch & Learn

Rapid City, S.D. – Sept. 7, 2010 – Food blogger and founder of Dakota Thyme, Julie Smoragiewicz, will share her passion for food and cooking at the library’s September Lunch and Learn program on Wednesday, Sept. 15 at noon. Along with her talk, Smoragiewicz will provide a cooking demonstration of the foods being served for lunch, which she is catering. Lunch includes a salad, bread and dessert.

Dakota Thyme is a food blog that features recipes and commentary. Smoragiewicz pays tribute to chefs of past and present, engages readers in wine and food adventures and shares her love of cooking and use of local ingredients. For more information visit www.dakotathyme.com.

Anyone who would like lunch must RSVP to the library by noon on Monday, Sept. 13 by calling 394-4171. Lunch is limited to the first 50 people to register. Attendees are welcome bring their own lunch or attend without having lunch. Lunch is sponsored by the Friends of the Library. This program takes place at the downtown library located at 610 Quincy St.

The Rapid City Public Library has served the Rapid City area since 1879, and now has two locations, the downtown library at 610 Quincy Street and the north library within General Beadle Elementary School at 10 Van Buren St. Both offer print and electronic resources for adults, young adults and children as well as computers and Internet access and a variety of programs and events. In March 2008, USA Today named the Rapid City Public Library's downtown library as one of the nation's 10 greatest places to "Find a Nook and Read a Book."
